

The 69 Eyes, Get Around

You've got a savage look in your eyes pretty little stranger girl
Too late to turn away you dragged me into your underworld
I think you've got your reasons
To carry a gun with you

Don't you try to baby put me down get around x2

Would you give a minute in heaven for a lifetime in hell
What's your price for eternity girl i know you've got a soul to sell

I think you've got your reasons
To carry a gun with you
(if you ain't got better to do)

Don't you try to baby put me down get around
x2
