

The 69 Eyes, Jimmy

I would've never thought you could be crying
As you saw Jimmy in Giant
Angels never same since they stopped flying
Bright beautiful flames burn brightly
That's the same

Little runaway with my heart
I'll be waiting
Little runaway with my heart
For you baby

I would've never thought I could be crying
On this dirty old boulevard the dreams are dying
Where the lonely teardrops
Never be drying
Bright beautiful flames always burn brightly
That's the same

Little runaway with my heart
I'll be waiting
Little runaway with my heart
For you baby
