

The 69 Eyes, Lay Down Your Arms, Girl

i'm crawling back to you like a rattlesnake i got a poison runnin' thru

burnin' down alive
without you, my dear
things i
left behind
makes me
want to disappear

surrender now
lay down your arms, girl
can't you see
for you i've been
kicked around the world

fallin' back on you don't you believe
everything i said is true

makes me
want to disappear

kicked around the world

no use tryin' to get your sorows drowned dont you know
they just learned to swim around 'n' around

surrender now
kicked around the world
