

The 69 Eyes, Nothing On You

Leaving you is not a big task to do
But I've been dreaming of you no matter how far I've been to Leaving you and all this dying romance
It's much harder to do
My life's slipping away from my hands

Believing in nothing
There ain't nothing that you can do

Ain't got
Nothing on you
Ain't got nothing on you
Baby
Nothing on you
Ain't got nothing on you
Baby

Bleeding for you the time has come to get through
But it ain't easy as you still remind me of the world turned blue
Bleeding for you and all this gone romance
It's so much harder to do
My footsteps fade away in the sand

Believing in nothing
There ain't nothing that you can do

Ain't got
Nothing on you
Ain't got nothing on you
Baby
Nothing on you
Ain't got nothing on you
Baby
