

The A.K.A.S, In Case I Die Tonight

Sometimes I feel more dead than alive.

I try, try, try I don't know why,
got to remind myself I'm not the only one.

In case I die tonight, tell my momma it's alright, alright.

Tell my daddy he never had to hang his head so low.

Just in case I die tonight

won't you recite some words to let them know despite those things they say about following dreams, sometimes it's not as easy as it seems.

In case I die tonight, tell my momma it's alright, alright.

Tell my daddy he never had to hang his head so low.

Just in case I die tonight.

(Clap your fucking hands.)
