

The Abyssinians, Let My Days

Each morning before the sun comes shining
(comes shining, comes shining)
I pray Jah Love to keep me strong (ooohh)
To keep me far away from the wicked (aaahh aaahh)
And let me live clean and strong
Just let me live with my fellowman
Father oh my Father (ooooh ooohhh)
Lift up my head and let me stand (ooohh oooohhh)
Show me the way the truth and light
And let my days be long
And let my days be long
(ooohhh ooohhh wwwiiii)
And let my days be long
And let my days be long
King, King of Kings (ooohhh oooohhh)
Lift up my head and let me move along (ooohhh oooohhh)
Show me the way, the truth and the light
And let my days be long
And let my days be long
Father I beg, I beg for light (I beg I beg)
You've got to give me light (let my days be long)
I beg, I beg, I beg (I beg I beg)
I ask, I ask, I ask (let my days be long)
Oh light
