The Academy Is, Beware! Cougar!

When I met you, you were on your back We still spend most afternoons like that But not for long Well, I find myself enjoying you But you play these reckless games You'll never lose As long as I'm around

Do you want to tie me up?
Do you want to tie me down?
Go ahead and do it now

So far, so good, let it roll, let it ride, ride So far, so good, let us fall, let us fight, fight It's no fun on the sidelines

We both know I'm too young for you And when you fake a laugh behind the wheel I know where this road is heading to With a sunken lie I lay in bed But I will live to be twenty-three And you'll see just how clever I can be

Do you want to tie me up? Do you want to tie me down? Go ahead and do it now

So far, so good, let it roll, let it ride, ride So far, so good, let us fall, let us fight, fight It's no fun on the sidelines

Driving backwards, wasting time Young love is ruthless, so learn to fly You taught me things I can't forget Positions that I don't regret I can't walk away, and I can't shake the taste

Do you want to tie me up? Do you want to tie me down? Go ahead and do it now

So far, so good, let it roll, let it ride, ride So far, so good, let us fall, let us fight, fight It's no fun on the sidelines

It's no fun on the sidelines, no Don't write a word, cuz I won't reply
