

The Adicts, Do It To Me

There's a kid who just found that love
Is not a dirty four lettered word
So would he ever imagined
Some other kid just wants to get off
And rock to the Blitzkrieg Bop
Could he ever should he ever
So wont you do what you do
Wont you do it to me
So wont you do what you do
Wont you do it to me
So wont you do what you do
Wont you do it to me
So wont you do what you do
Wont you do
A girl on the planet of sound
Rode the velvet underground
Has she ever, maybe never, met Lou
Well I been there and got me a shirt
A lick of make up kind of didn't hurt
So can I ever imagine a lipstick-less life
Everyone's got to do
What you do what you do what you
Or you'll never be happy
And that's true
