

The Adicts, Sure Looks Pretty

Never had no luck
never had no dreams at all
Never had a reason
To feel the way I do
When a soul train man
Sings do do do do to me
My heart is aching, baby
And I know where I should be
Never had no love
For a thousand years or more
Sometimes its easy
Sometimes it really gets me down
When a mowtown girl
Cries a melody
I'll know for sure, oh baby
Somewhere someone waits for me

Chased me from here to the other side of there
Another night inside but I don't care
Beat me up in the rain
Wrong man again
They're only.....etc.
