

The Afghan Whigs, Beware

the way people smile and say, using me in every way it's ok

times are changing life is upside down
no reason to cry now oh no reason to cry now beware of who you listen to beware of what you believe ain't nothing i can do to you

to make you love me

friends are the reason for so many breakups and breakdowns, round town so many people think that life is so much fun we've only just begun begun to have some fun

beware of who you believe ain't nothing i can do to you
