The Afghan Whigs, Gentlemen

Your attention please Now turn off the light Your infection please I haven't got all night

Understand
Do you understand?
Understand
I'm a gentleman

I stayed in too long
But she was the perfect fit
And we dragged it out so long this time
Started to make each other sick
But now I've got time for you
For you, you, you and me too
Well, come and get it, come and get it
Cause I'm done

Understand Do you understand? Understand, I'm a gentleman I'm a gentleman

I waited for the joke It never did arrive And words I thought I'd smoke

Let me in I'm cold
All messed up but nowhere to go
You got indecision, and indecision is my enemy
Unlock the cabinet
I'll take whatever you got
Now I'm on it, now I'm on it
And you're done

I waited for the joke It never did arrive And words I thought I'd choke I hardly recognize
