

The All-American Rejects, Can't Take It&nbsp;

You speak to me
I know this will be temporary
You ask to leave,
but I can tell you that I've had enough

I can't take it
This welcome is gone and I've waited long enough to make it
and if you're so strong
you might as well just do it alone
And I'll watch you go

Step up to me
I know that you've got something buried I'll set you free
You set conditions, but I've had enough

I can't take it
This welcome is gone and
and if you're so strong
you might as well just do it alone
And I'll watch you go

Come back home, won't you come back home?
You step in line, you got a lot to prove
It comes and goes Yeah, it comes and goes
A step in time, yeah it's a lot to move
I know this will be temporary
I know this will be temporary
I know this will be, but I've had enough

I can't take it
This welcome is gone and
you might as well just do it alone
And I'll watch you go

I can't take it
This welcome is gone and
you might as well just do it alone
And I'll watch you go
