

The All American Rejects, I'm Waiting

One question, what can't be done?
You tear me down with the same thing
There's nothing there and it's begun
What can you do when it all drains?

Down, there you go always
See if i care fading
Down, don't you know where i'll be
Cuz i'm here, by my own

Waiting, when i'm waiting
(downtown now)
I've been here before, and i don't care where i'm going
So i'll stay...

When you walk, don't leave a note
Just put your hands on the back door
When you talk, it's just a joke
Just know, i can't take it anymore

Down, there you go always
See if i care fading
Down, don't you know where i'll be
Cuz i'm here, by my own

Waiting, when i'm waiting
(downtown now)
I've been here before, and i don't care where i'm going
So i'll be, waiting (waiting)
when i'm waiting (downtown now)
I'll tell you once more
That, as long as you're gone

Then i'll stay...
Outside there's no place i can hide
And your dead of time
Is anything alright
When the wind tries
The storm won't subside
You'll be outside
I'm in here and i'll guard

Waiting, when i'm waiting
(downtown now)
I've been here before, and i don't care where i'm going
So i'll be, waiting (waiting)
When i'm waiting (downtown now)
I'll tell you once more
That as long as you're gone

then i'll stay...
then i'll stay
i missed it and you'll go
stay...
