

The Allman Brothers Band, Cast Off All My Fears

Once I was on my own and falling
Once I was all alone and calling
For someone anyone today
To help me just a little on my way
And then I took a look around
I saw all that love that surrounded me
I know that it was all up to me and
Cast Off All My Fears that bound me
Cast Off All My Fears that bound me

You find you can't go on depending Always to help your in deep ending
Your reason for being whom you are
And asking for that lightest brightest star
I thought that all I had to do
Was beleving the things that was true to me
And let it happen naturally
And Cast Off All My Fears that bound me
Cast Off All My Fears that bound me

solo

I thought that all I had to do
Was beleving the things that was true to me
And let it happen naturally
And Cast Off All My Fears that bound me
Cast Off All My Fears that bound me
Cast Off All My Fears that bound me
