

The Almost, Dirty And Left Out

Hello I swear I won't be too long
Hello I promise I'll be real strong
Wait up, I just want to tell you to hold up
Why are you still here?

I've been dirtier than you wanna know
I've left earlier than you'll ever know

Why do you wanna be all listening to me
Why do you spread your arms and tell me
I'm free
Why do you wanna be in my life, in my life

I've been dirtier than you wanna know
I've left earlier than you'll ever know

Jesus, Jesus
There's something about your name
Master, Saviour
Jesus

I've been dirtier than you wanna know
I've left earlier than you'll ever know

Jesus, Jesus...
