

The Animators, Good To Be Here

I woke up to an unfamiliar ceiling
"Look who's back," I saw the doctors smile
Careful, we almost thought we'd lost you for a while.

"Cecilia" was the last thing I remember on the radio
of the overturned car.
"How long have I been here?
I can't feel a thing...
but I think I'm alright"

It's good to be here.
It's good to be right where I belong
So good to be here
And good to be gone

And I saw
The ones I left behind me
In a lullaby town
With the sun in their eyes
And I knew
I had to make it out of there sometime

Now I wake
In the city of the future
We gather on the platform
With hope in our eyes
And I know why I came here
And it's good, and it's good
For once in my life

It's good to be here.
It's good to be right where I belong
So good to be here
And good to be gone
Good to be gone

Sometimes it takes a shock to shake you
From a deep sleep.
And I know what I wanted to say

It's good to be here.
It's good to be right where I belong
So good to be here
It's good to be gone
It's good to be here
It's good to be gone
It's good to be here
It's good to be gone
It's good to be here
