

The Anniversary, Alright For Now

released on The Anniversary/Proudentall split 7" and the tour 7";

Us there - the snow is already so thick
You wrote your name across my street
And I remember how the letters look lying there melting
And I can see the star on top of the awkward tree

But now it's seasons past
And a weary October approaches still knowing
It can see farther than the both of us
When everything else looks long
Far away from the night spent swinging on 34th
When the rain made you so still More quieter than you'd think
And you said when we are older
And you said when we are older

That's enough to make me feel all right when you're gone
I never could feel this way before you
I never understood how this would work
Started without an end

And that's enough to make me feel all right forever

I never could feel this way before you
I never understood how this would work
Started without an end
