

The Answer, Under The Sky

A leader to come and put a cross right upon his land
He said the travesty is the future has been laid
In your hands too long
Will the journey come to an end, will it end?
Sympathy can't disguise all the evil that is Locked in your head
We're tumbling through two stories that
Should never be read
Can't you see I believe in a place called Hell
Yes, I do

Under the sky I cry for you
Under the sky I crawl
Under the sky I'd die for you
You are the reason why I fall away

People have died and I have cried waiting for Salvation to come
It takes a lot of my faith believin' everyday we are
One in the same
Is it plain that the damage is done, is it done?
Knock me out cold clear my hair take me back
To the start
Tell me everything is over and I don't have the heartache too late
All my dreams are passing me by
There they go

Under the sky I cry for you
Under the sky I crawl
Under the sky I'd die for you
You are the reason why I fall away, I fall away, I fall-all-all away, yes

Taking a stand one hand closing over all of Your doors
I play a different tune 'cause I don't wanna
Fight in your war,
Torn apart gotta stitch myself together again
Carry me on your back, Jack, you're never gonna
Reach to the top
Above the millions of people scrapin' by
You see what they've got
Shot down everytime they try to get back up
Up, they get

Under the sky I cry for you
Under the sky I crawl
Under the sky I'd die for you
You are the reason why I fall away
I fall away
