

The Apathy Eulogy, Baby Maybe

Got you on my conscience where you wanna be
It's there in spite of all you've done to me
I got you on my bad side and you're leading me
So misleading, you're so contagious now

Got you on my conscience where you wanna be
It's there in spite of all you've done to me
I got you on my bad side and you're leading me
So misleading, you're so contagious so

Baby, maybe
Those simple words will never reach your ears
You'll never have the time to hear my plea

Got you on my conscience where you wanna be
It's there in spite of all you've done to me
I got you on my bad side and you're leading me
So misleading, you're so contagious so

Baby, maybe
Those simple words will never reach your ears
You'll never have the time to hear my plea

So baby, maybe
Those simple words will never reach your ears
You'll never have the time to hear my plea

I just wrote you this letter
I just wrote you this note
With a chance for a change
And a splinter of hope
But you'll fake this indifference
Fake apathy
So I'll turn a deaf ear
Turn away from my plea

I just wrote you this letter
I just wrote you this note
With a chance for a change
And a splinter of hope
But you'll turn a deaf ear
Turn away from my plea
So I'll fake this indifference
Fake apathy

So maybe, baby
Those simple words will never reach your ear

So baby, maybe
Those simple words will never reach your ears
You'll never have the time to hear my plea (x2)
