

The Apathy Eulogy, Daphne Doesn't Love Derby,

Congratulations, you've won the match and taken home the prize
Shattered pieces scattered randomly
The remnant of your lies
Now make him beg
Get on his knees
Make him beg 'cause it's your game

His only crime to answer for
Responding to advances from
All your selfish indifference and
Hard falls the naive victim to your scheming plan
You know how to play the game (x3)

Congratulations
Self-esteem rejuvenated
He's been subjugated
Oh you know I hate it
When you flaunt with your lying eyes
Make him beg, make him beg cuz it's your game

His only crime to answer for
Responding to advances from
All your selfish indifference and
Hard falls the naive victim to your scheming plan
You know how to play the game (x3)

I hope I... I never
I hope we... we never
I hope I... I never
I hope I... I never
