

The Aquabats, Hot Summer Night (Won't Last Fo

I saw you there with your pretty blondeish hair eating a breakfast burrito you seemed so neato
so we took the bus down to the pier Down on the sand
by the metal detector man we looked across the bay as the dolphins swam away we held hands
and just imagined
with tears in my eyes
you had to say goodbye
you had to go
you couldn't tell me why you said something about you moving to Alaska
I'm gonna miss you
I'm gonna miss you so much
Those hot summer nights
won't last forever
I know you're gone and you can't come home
I'm so alone, but I'll never forget about you.
I understand
So I bought a krugerrand
I'll wear you near my heart
We'll never be apart
Now the heavens will smile upon us
With tears in my eyes
you had to go
You couldn't tell me why
You said something about you moving living on an iceberg
I'm gonna miss you
I'm gonna miss you so much
Those hot summer nights
Won't last forever
