

The Ark, All I Want Is You

How can I pretend that I like your new friend
When all I want is you
How can I put up with him saying "buttercup";
When all I want is you?
All I want is you
We been through all this before
It's no funny anymore
That all I want is you
It's getting quite absurd
The worst hang up ever heard of
That all I want is you
All I want is you

I keep telling you
I've got lots of things to do
I've got girlfriends old and new
You keep telling me
that "it's crazy";
And it's true
that it's crazy
but I'm not
But

I keep telling you
I've got lots of things to do
I've got boyfriends old and new
'Cause starting up again
would be nothing but insane
and a messed-up thing to do...

It's painful to admit
But I've been feeling like shit
'Cause all I want is you
It's getting quite absurd
The worst hang up ever heard of
That all I want is you
All I want is you
No!
gotta get a hobby
Something soothing for my soul
To get my mind off you
Yeah I'm gonna get a job
And a cute little dog then look for someone new And forget I ever wanted you

I keep telling you
I've got lots of things to do
I've got boyfriends old and new
You keep telling me
that "it's crazy";
but I'm not Yet

I keep telling you

When all I want is you

The worst hang up ever heard of
All I want is you
All I want is you
