

The Ataris, Jeannie

Friday night, she's not alone
I wonder who's going to drive her home, and walk her to the door and will she give him a good night kiss?
Monday at school, she says "hello";
I fight the tears as I watch her go
She'll never know what she means to this lonely boy.

If you'd only take a walk with me
Just give me some time and you might see,
I can be your hero if you'd let me in.
You can't deny what's in your heart, and you know I'm trying to be a part.
You can do better than those other boys
