

The Ataris, Looking Back On Today

30th of April, seems like yesterday
Bought a house above the ocean
Where our kids could laugh and play

I called you from Paris
To tell you that I Wrote our names on the observation deck
Of the Eiffel Tower

Remember those nights playing summer wind on the jukebox of the bar we used to go
We made out in the bathroom and you walked me to my house
I tried to convince you not to go home

If only I had more time
I'd take you where you wanted to go
Italy isn't the same without you here
If only I had one wish
I'd want a million trillion life times that I could spend with you
I'd fall in love with you again and again

First of November 1998
I was thinking of what to say when I would call Denise come over to my house cause you're the one for me
We'll drink cheap wine and watch for shooting stars

Remember our first apartment?
Our couch was never big enough for two Still we'd fall asleep in each other's arms and wake up on the floor
Now looking back it was made for me and you

If only I had more time
I'd take you where you wanted to go
Japan is really nice this time of year

If only I had one wish
I'd want a million trillion life times that I could spend with you
I'd fall in love with you again and again
