

The Ataris, Myself

I live my life day by day
Hating it in every way
Sitting all alone, keeping to myself
Far away from everyone else

Even though I feel alone inside
Sometimes I find it hard to hide
It's hard to keep my feelings in
I just want to express myself again

I'm gonna speak my mind
You should speak your mind

I wonder how I'll tell you how I feel?
And how do I know if this feeling's really real?
I don't understand the reasons why
Instead of speaking your mind you don't even try...

Or even care
You don't even care
