

The Ataris, Ray

"Sometimes I sit and think about yesterday
Of all the simple words that I didn't even say
I just sit back and wonder why...

Everything is just bought and sold
And why everyone listens to what they're told
No matter what you do you'll never get ahead
And to everyone else you're just better off dead

Sometimes I sit and watch you on T.V.
And I just think about how cruel it would be
To call your family at a quarter 'til four
Ray doesn't live here anymore
