

The Ataris, That Special Girl

I need a girl who likes to go to shows
I need a girl who won't make fun of my clothes

I'm looking for a special girl who Wants to go all over the world
If you're my special girl
Would you let me know?

Would you let me know?

Do you have a boyfriend?
Or possibly a girlfriend??
'Cause I'm lonely all the time
And I wish that it would end

I need a girl that likes to stay out late -
We'd share a cocktail, wouldn't it be great?

If only this were true
Then I would fall in love with you
I'm looking for a special girl
Could it be you?

I could write a stupid love song
And sing it all across the world
But it wouldn't mean a thing
Until I find my special girl.
