

The Attic, A Life to Live

There's a life out there,
that you have to live.
Somebody told me tears are like rain,
so wipe it away.
Don't fool yourself in need to believe,
it's all coming back
Why are we blinded by our fears?
Who wants to see the dark side of the moon?
Remember this life to live,
you know you gotta live your life
Just wanna show you, you're not alone,
I'll stand by your side.
Cause when the darkness leads you astray,
chase the demons away.
Why are we blinded by our fears?
Who wants to see the dark side of the moon?
Remember this life to live,
you know you gotta live your life
You've got a life to live.
There's a life out there,
that you have to live.
I'll bring you loving,
don't forget to live your life.
(2x)
Remember this life to live,
you know you gotta live your life
You've got a life to live.
