

The Autumn Offering, Beginning's End

A sudden gasp for life
Will this be our last?
Will we sit back and
Watch fate destroy us?
Come and take my hand
We can ride off and watch
The world die as we breath
In our last breaths

Dying world
Dying world

The darkened skies are
Now falling over head
Will this be the end
Or just another dream
Angels falling
From burning skies
Hell has opened up
It's doors for us

Dying world
Dying world

Now can you feel the end?
Now can you see the end?
Now do you want the end?
Now do you think your god cares?

A mass suicide
For all, all mankind
This is all our faults
No one will be saved
Time is running thin
I look towards the skies
I see now that this
Is truly the
