

The Awkward Romance, It May Concern

we have a connection sorta like the correlation in between new mustangs and premature balding when we're together i swear could skip a stone in the sky and watch it bounce from cloud to cloud to clouptime can only tell such an awkward tale can't spam the guestbook i can't sign i'm just a resentful kid i guess and God knows why to whom it may concern to whom it may (awkward tale never fails never fails to concern)ditching is expected and maybe it's just sad that i'm the very best fairy tale ending you never had should i put these things behind me always willing to forgive i guess i have better things in store i guess i have better things in store..
