

The B-52s, Vision Of A Kiss

I wish to see your lips
Parting like the waves of silence and mystery
I've got a curious love-for you!
Ever since we met I'm so impressed with you
Ever since we met
I've been so impressed!

CHORUS

I'm havin' a vision
I'm havin' a vision
I can't wait forever-(I can't wait, I can't wait)
I'm havin' a vision of a kiss from your sweet lips
But I can wait 'till the twelfth of never
Don't shatter the vision
Don't shatter the vision
The burning vision of a kiss from your sweet lips

Been lonely for so long
My life jumped the track
Broken clock on the wall says I should head back
But the vision holds me
The vision holds me
Lost in a vision of a kiss from your sweet lips

Every time you speak
A pearl falls in my cup
You turn away, the pearl melts before I drink it up
No-don't shatter the vision
Don't shatter the vision
Lost in a vision of a kiss from your sweet lips

CHORUS

Strong wind is blowin' me down
To the center of town
Come on, seize the wilderness of the moment
Feel the movement of the moon-
swans fly with wings wide open to the sky
Like a wild wave of birds goin' by
I know our souls will fly!

Things are out of focus
My face is wet with sweat
Though I've only seen you once
Just see how shaky I get
Would you even notice?
Would you even care?
If you knew that every day I'm sitting there

Vision of a kiss
A vision
A vision
A vision
A vision of a kiss

CHORUS

Every time you speak
A pearl falls in my cup
You turn away, the pearl melts before I drink it up
The mystery unfolds...
