The Babys, Back On My Feet Again

I was so lonely until I met you

Told myself I'd get by without love

Drownin' my sorrows

Avoiding tomorrows

Kind of felt that I just had enough

You light up my face with your jokes and your smiles

And the way that you came here tonight

Don't know what you got

But I'm sure glad I found you

Could be wrong but it sure feels right

And here I am

I'm back on my feet again

Here I am

I'm back on my feet again

Surprised at myself

for the way that I feel

So happy that you're here with me

Some women I've known

They've left me with nothing

But I guess that was just meant to be

And here I am

I'm back on my feet again

Here I am

I'm back on my feet again

I was down for the count

I was down

I was beat

I was cryin'

I was cornered and hurt

I was hidin' my face

Sittin' there cryin'

I was so lonely until I met you

Told myself I'd get by without love

Drownin' my sorrows

Avoiding tomorrows

Kind of felt that I just had enough

And here I am

I'm back on my feet again

Here I am

I'm back on my feet again.

Yes here I am

I'm back on my feet again

Here I am

I'm back on my feet again
