

The Bates, I Don't Wanna Love You let yesterday be yestarday don't let us go to for what happened yesterday on the backseat of your car it was the 3rd of september when I meet you at the whiskybar and yes still do remember but I don't wanna love you I don't wanna know your name I don't wanna love you I don't wanna play this game anymore It was fun, but now it's over and I know what I have to do caise I live the life of a rover adn I have to get over you now I stand here at the station whith you right by my side but I can't change the situation and the tears that you can't hide
