

The Be Good Tanyas, Momsong

You said to yourself that we did not love you
All of the years didn't mean nothing
You told yourself we would not forgive you
Mistakes that you made would keep us separated

Comin' home hard day done

Don't you know it's your laugh we laugh that Pulls us through
And the strength and the love that we carry
We got it from you
