The Bear Quartet, Gone Gone

I say come, come, come but he's not gonna come I'm not going places gone, gone he's just like dead and gone there's no sign of his face gone, gone, gone, gone he's never gonna come gone, gone, gone he's never gonna come home at daybreak ready to take on the world but he won't see how lonely is a lonely word this is the room where he used to stay this is the bed in which we used to lay gone, gone, gone, gone he's never gonna come home gone, gone, gone, gone he's never gonna come home gone, gone, gone, gone he's never gonna come gone, gone, gone he's never gonna come home gone, gone, gone, gone he's never gonna come home