

The Bear Quartet, Headacher

don't come any closer don't touch
I'm not like this when I'm sober but now I'm drunk

headacher, heartbreaker
please stay away

if it's her tell her I'm out of town if it's her I'll die if it's her tell her I'm too drunk to speak to her if it's her it must be a lie

you hate the sound of sobbing it's in your eyes whenever we meet I'm still in the garden while you, you're in the green
