

The Bear Quartet, Kept Fine

searching around the hours out on the platform, the last cigarette had me some bad machine coffee at least dreams won't haunt me now that your dress is wet out in the evergreen, don't tell anyone
be nice to their brains and if they find you out don't forget that I'm way ahead

this time
I'm way ahead
for a while

even here is too near if I knew you well enough I'd say you'll smash a car or anything to pieces yeah, you scare me, go away tuff in a town as good as anyone just need a place to stay and a shower, in the dark doing the simple things

I'm well ahead
this time
I'm way ahead
for a while

before moving on for days my dear spring is getting here my name on your face