The Bears, Caveman

i am a modern caveman sittin' here by the fire these hands of mine been busy they never seem to tire i am a fearless hunter look at all these bones sometimes i sit and wonder who i am and what I'm for i'm a caveman i painted lots of pictures and made up my own songs i shivered through the winters the pain has made me strong I'm looking for a woman to help me count these stars then maybe she could show me who i am and what i'm for i'm a caveman i named the constellations and taught myself to swim created my creator and made me look like him i pondered my condition till my head began to ache right now I'm going fishin' it's good to be at the top of the food chain i'm a caveman
