

The Beautiful South, The Best We Can

I was just sitting here thinking
So I took my time to decide
And I finally decided to say
I love you
I love you
The sweetest words always
Come from the sweetest singer
The greatest life from the greatest man
Instead of saying
I love you
Let's just say
We'll do the best we can

The best I can do is a long long screw
The best I can do is lie back and fake it
Girl I know that you still fake it
Boy you just ain't got a clue

The greatest praise from the greatest whore
The smallest praise from the smallest man
Instead of saying
I love you
Let's just say
We'll do the best we can

Let's just say
We'll do the best we can
Let's just say
We'll do the best we can
Let's just say
We'll do the best we can

If that means bringing
Some flowers
Talking on the phone
For hours and hours
