

The Beloved, Up, Up And Away

Step inside for some more of what you're missing or just unsure of say goodbye to those dull days inspiration will take you more ways up, up and away, hello new day!

oh, you're gonna feel so crazy
you're gonna touch the sky
you never felt so hazy, you've never been this high just look around you, well it ain't no lie h a p p y

come back down from your grey cloud feel born again, say it out loud don't you know hope can be found take your foot out your mouth, come back down

up, up and away, hello new day!
you're gonna touch the sky
you never felt so hazy, you've never been this high
just look around you, well it ain't no lie
h a p p y

yeah, give the world a message that the word is yes it's quite impressive, it's real fresh a little understanding is the reason why

up, up and away...
up, up and away...
up, up and away...
up, up and away...

what we need in this world is a love'n'harmony positive emotions they will, set your spirit free

(comment : the "positive emotions..." is played backwards)
(comment : and the word "backwards" added ontop!)
