

The Ben Taylor Band, Love

Well you could be dream'in
You could easily be lieing by yourself sleep'in
Only to wake up hopelessly stranded in love
Oh, you could be mov'in
Proud of yourself about the lonely way you keep grov'in
Only to stop uncontrollably frozen in love

It could fool you at any time on any given day
Been proven to make you blind
It seems like nobody's safe now days
Ohh, are you ready for love
Love...

Well problems will grieve you
And all sorts of people will try to decieve you
But those types of worries can leave you as quick as they came
But love doesn't leave you
She waits in the back of your mind and believes you
She could decieve you as easy as show you the way

She could fool you at any time on any given day
She's been proven to make you blind
It seems like nobody's safe now days
Ohh, are you ready for love
Love...

She could fool you at any time on any given day
She's been proven to make you blind
It seems like nobody's safe now days
Love...
