

The Ben Taylor Band, One Man Day

One man day, rolling in high and gray
Too much fire
Everyone tried
Now everyone's tierd
You and I, where do we go, what do we say?
We'll open our minds and keep our eyes closed hey!

And I'll keep my time
Give me the grace to hold my line
I'll do as you say
Whatever you want from me
One Man Day

I'll close my eyes, there's nothing to waste, it's only light
Sound and Space
Nothing escapes
Everything just stays inside
It's okay it wasn't my place, it wasn't designed
It's always the same though and I plain don't know why

I'll keep my time
Give me the grace to hold my line
Tired of running away
Whatever you want from me
One Man Day

I'll keep my time
Give me the grace to hold my line
Tired of running away
Only to breathe your name
I'll keep my time
Give me the grace to hold my line
I'll do as you sya
Whatever you want from me
One man day
