

The Benjamin Gate, Lift Me Up

Seeing thru a hole in time looking at this world of mine all the words we've had to say all the dreams to light the way it's been fine though we've been apart but it's only just begun far away from home
but baby I'm not alone

Lift me up
turn me around got to get my feet off the ground

turn me around
sunrises in black and blue sunsets say I love you You said I had strength to stand my ground said I had wings to fly
far away from home
and everyday away hurts a little more But every day away is easy to ignore.
