

The Benjamin Gate, Your Kisses Blind Me

I look around
I see Your face no longer
This place I'm in leaves me wondering
It takes some time for me to be what You need
It won't be long
I know the day will come I know Your eyes
When they fall upon me
I dream of this
That love drips off my lips
I feel so strong
It must be Your kindness
A gift to me
You're all I want

(Chorus:)
Beautiful You are to me
Moon above a raging sea
Beautiful You are to me
Flame of fire inside of me
Your kisses blind me

I'm breaking up
My walls are coming down now
This gravity
Pulling me towards You
This vast expanse
A universe exploding
A secret place
Just for

(Chorus)
With heaven above
The light warms my face
I feel safe
I guess the world will keep on turning

(Chorus X 2)
