

The Benjamins, Sophia On The Stereo rise and shine to the stereo playing a song I know we both like it sounds like lazy summer sundays it sounds like something that we both like rise and shine to California singing a song I know we both like it sounds like rainy summer sundays

wa oh, wa oh, we're on the stereo wa oh, wa oh, we're on the stereo now a stack of mixtapes brought me closer and I know that it's a modest melody that sent you out to find the perfect guy but found you crashing into me
