

The Berlin Project, Someday Forever

When I stare into your eyes
I can hold myself together
I never could before
The things that you say
Were never meant to hurt me
But I can't help dying

I want hear every word you say
In the end everything is going to be ok
In my heart its easy to see
That you were meant for me
There's nothing I won't do
No one I could see to take your place
When all is said and through
I hope you see that then is someday soon

I can see its nothing to you
But to me you mean the sky
And everything that falls at night
Its like a never-ending story that's keeping us apart
Such a mess were in right now

Never forget falling stars
They remind me who you are
I remember yesterday
Hang on every word you say
Maybe kindly tells me no
Fallen dreams just won't let go
Never forget yesterday
Hang on every word you say.
