

The Besnard Lakes, Cedric's War

I believed in obsessions
You believes in ineptitude
They had need for suggestions
When they had to tell the truth
And you wasted all your youth

Cedric fought for the English
He was rich but his parents knew
How to cope with the anguish
Of dealing with the views
That they read about in the news on Sundays