

The Better World, Emotionless

Emotionless
(Matt Coban)

You've taken all that's left away from me
And left me standing here with my youth to bleed
And I don't know what I can do to make you understand
That everything I need is nothing you can give
And you don't know the feeling
It's just too much to explain
I can sit here faceless
You still won't know what to say

I never knew I felt like this before
So would you catch me if I start to fall?

And I don't know what I can do to make you understand
That everything I need is nothing you can give
And you don't know the feeling
It's just too much to explain (I don't know where you are)
I can sit here faceless
You still won't know what to say

Is there anybody out there?
Who's ever gone this far
Is there anybody out there, who's gone far?
And you don't know the feeling
It's just too much to explain
I did it all for you
