

The Big Wu, Two Person Chair

cyote
let me do your talking keep on howling and swirling in the wilderness night

the oreal
she cried into the air dancing with the flames as her soul and her heart fill with light fire lead me to your door show me to that place where the love and the sun fill the air

let me take the wheel i'll bring my own pipe and a song and a two person chair

chair
in my two person chair
chair

pooh bear
what you gonna do when there's no one to play with and tigger's all sick in the head?

hey now
is everybody here?
get up your chiggers and put all those monkeys to bed

when she's feeling all the energy and most when she can't find the glare tomorrow

(no) we'll both climb a mountain that's the place for the sun and a two person chair

chair
chair

chair
