

The Black Crowes, How Much For Your Wings?

How much for your wings?
How much for your wings?
Well it comes and it goes
How much for your wings?
And it's high and low
How much for your wings?
I can name a price
How much for your wings?
Many forget their pride

If I were you
And you were me we'd know
And could it be
What you perceive is wrong?
And what I mean what wrong could be
I don't know
I'm not naive but I believe
So I may grow

How much for your wings?
The soul you kiss good-bye
How much for your wings?
Watch the stars collide

How does it feel
When you're the only one?
